ABOUT THE CITY.

A Woman's Death from Carbolic Acid.

WAITING FOR HER HUSBAND.

Sad Plight of a Family Lately Arrived from the East—Other News.

Mrs. Maria Ford died at her son's residence yesterday afternoon from an overdose of carbolic acid, which an inquest jury decided was taken with intent to commit suicide. She was a woman of 44 years of age and was living with her son, G. J. P. Ford on New Depot street near Pearl. He is a member of the firm of Brown and Ford, which deals in marble and granite on San Pedro street. Yesterday morning about half past eight Mr. Ford was in the bath-room taking a bath and he heard his mother, who occupied the room next adjoining, breathing with great difficulty. Hastily dressing himself, he went into the room and found Mrs. Ford lying upon a lounge, suffering intensely and almost unconscious. There was a strong odor of carbolic acid, and in her pocket was found a bottle containing a small quantity of the article.

A doctor was sent for, and every effort made to resuscitate the dying woman. She presently became unconscious and remained so to the end. She died about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ford had been ill for a number of years, and for some time had despaired of ever recovering. Her suicide was probably the result of her despondent state of feeling.

A MISSING HUSBAND.

Distressing Incident at the Southern Pacific Depot.

A rather distressing incident has engaged the attention of the railway men around the Southern Pacific Depot, on San Fernando street, during the past two days. On the overland train which pulled into the city from the East on Thursday last, arrived an English woman and her seven children, the eldest being a girl of eighteen and the youngest a toddler of but three years of age. They looked anxiously around with expectant glances, but their faces drooped, and the railway special officer, who saw that they were strangers, asked what he could do for them. The mother of the children who gave her name as Leach, stated that her husband came to this country about fourteen months ago and obtained employment as traveling agent for Dewey & Co., of San Francisco. About seven weeks ago he sent money to his family with instructions for them to come on to Los Angeles, where he would meet them, "but," said the speaker, "we do not know where to look for him or where he is." The officer undertook to find a suitable lodging-house for the little party, but Mrs. Leach declared that she would not leave the depot until her husband arrived. The little party therefore sat around all night and all the next day, but the husband did not put in an appearance, so when nightfall came the boys about the depot insisted on the strangers accepting accommodations at Mr. Gilman's on Ann street. All day Saturday they waited at the depot again, and yesterday they once more sat faithfully watching, but in vain. A dispatch sent to Messrs. Dewey was responded to with the information that Leach was in San Diego or San Bernardino, so an effort will be made today to locate him and tell him of the straits his family is in.

TAMMANY HALL.

Resolutions Adopted at Yesterday's Meeting.

Tammany Hall held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Iroquois club rooms with about seventy-five members in attendance. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: First President, Tom Keefe; Second President, Chas. Berry; Secretary, John D. Schieck; Treasurer, R. A. Ling; Executive Committee, Thomas McCaffery, David Mattheson, Geo. D. Roberts, Chas. P. Kearney, John O'Hanlon, C. E. Roberts. The following resolutions were adopted:

"The Tammany Hall of Los Angeles city congratulate the citizens of Los Angeles, irrespective of party, upon the successful passage of the Charter. We must emphatically pronounce ourselves to support such candidates for the office of Councilmen as will pledge themselves to secure the passage of an ordinance giving the city an outfall sewer to the sea. We hereby request the Park Committee of the City Council to push the work of the public parks to completion at the earliest possible day, thus giving work to many deserving laborers now idle in this city. We request the proper city officials to continue the work of improvement on the streets.

The club will meet next Sunday afternoon to consider the question of candidates for the next municipal election.

The "Tribune" Trouble.

There were rumors in the streets yesterday to the effect that the Sheriff today would be instructed to lock the doors of the Tribune office if a settlement of the indebtedness is not made. One of the stockholders of the paper, however, when spoken to on the subject, said that he had heard of the rumor, and that there was a possibility that such an order might be likely to be given. He was of the opinion, however, that the indebtedness would be cleared off, and there would be no occasion for the Sheriff to take action in the matter.

Fell From the Trestle.

Edward Kemp was brought to the Police Station last evening suffering from several severe bruises. He said he was walking on the Santa Fe trestle work in East Los Angeles and was knocked off by an engine. It was the general opinion, however, that he simply fell from the trestle and received the injuries.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

Gossip About Plays and the Players.

NOTES AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The "Black Crook" at the Grand Opera-House—Carleton and Modjeska Coming.

Mrs. Langtry is writing her life. It should be a spicy book.

A European statistician finds that $75,000,000 worth of jewels has been stolen from actresses within ten years.

A man in McKeesport, Pa., has invented a system of musical stenography that will enable an expert to steal a whole opera.

There is no doubt about Fanny Rice's costumes as "Nadjy." From her bust to the dimples of her pretty little toes, she is a ballet symphony in black.

Pauline Lucca declares that after her approaching American tour she will retire from the stage. She has purchased a villa at Gmunder, where she intends to open a school for opera singers.

Adelaide Ristori is now in Paris staying in her splendid Rue Malesherbes mansion. She is the wife of the Marquis Capranica del Grillo, a leading member of the old Papal nobility.

Women first appeared in ballet in 1681. Prior to that date young and plump youths were selected for stage dancers. The first premiere danseuses were Mlles. La Fontaine, Roland, Lepeintre and Fernon.

The death is chronicled of Mme. Ilma di Murska, the once brilliant soprano vocalist. She died January 17th in Munich in extreme poverty, and her daughter committed suicide in despair at the death of her mother.

James Brown Potter, the husband of the society actress, is described as a stout, handsome young man, who strolls about the lobby of the theater listening to all that is said about his wife. It is presumed he never hears anything derogatory. He gets that from the morning papers.

Patti is singing for $3,500 a night in London, which is the highest price yet. This is singing up among the high C's. And yet, according to the great Frau, Lehman-Kalisch, "Patti is over." Doubtless there are many of us, even Germans, who would be overjoyed to be "over" on like terms.

Lotta, the actress, has purchased the northeast corner of Seventh avenue and One Hundred and Eighteenth street, New York for $200,000. This information, which can be authenticated by the city records, ought to make some professional people who have squandered as they have gone along, feel quite ill.

Lawrence Barrett has resumed negotiations to secure Mme. Modjeska to star with Edwin Booth next season, while Mr. Barrett is starring alone in his new play. He has telegraphed Nixon & Zimmerman, asking how much they want for Mme. Modjeska's release for a period of twenty weeks. Booth and Modjeska would look most impressive on the playbills.

As Hans von Bulow will be on this side of the Atlantic before March of this year, Hans Richter, of Vienna, will conduct in his stead the performance of Beethoven's ninth symphony, planned for that month by the Berlin Philharmonic chorus and Philharmonic orchestra. Hans Richter will conduct on two successive evenings, and the programme, besides the symphony, will contain works by Brahms and Liszt.

The California songstress, Miss Sibyl Sanderson, is likely to be the means of divorcing her tutor, Composer Marsenet, from his wife. According to a Paris correspondent, Mme. Massenet is growing jealous of the young operatic star, who, Christine Nilsson said, could take one note higher and hold it longer than any singer she had ever heard. If she can do this, and also make it louder than anybody else, not counting much on quality, she ought to be an immense success in this country.

One of the women whistlers of the time came to grief at Worcester, Mass., on Sunday. Being billed to render several selections at a so-called sacred concert, she was waited upon by the Mayor and Town Council and asked what airs she expected to whistle. The character of those she had learned to whistle was most too lively to suit the austere solons and they bluntly informed her that if she included nothing more sacred in her repertory she had better move on. She cried and pleaded with them, but they were obdurate and the whistling was postponed. Think of that, ye Los Angeles Sunday-nighters!

Clever Fannie Rice, the prima donna soubrette who made such a success of the title role of Nadjy at the New York Casino, returns to that house in the same part on the 21st instant. Miss Rice is one of the highest salaried artistes on the comic opera stage, and her services are in great demand. She has already received three flattering offers for next season from New York managers, including one from Rudolph Aronson to remain at the Casino, which she will probably accept, as it has the inducement of a big addition to her present salary.

Funny careers some actresses have, don't they? Here is Julia Marlowe, for instance, the sensational success of the present season, everywhere pronounced to be the coming great tragedienne. Eight years has she been on the stage and yet nobody heard of her until she came forth at the Bijou Theater last season with a great flourish of trumpets, and she was worthy of the flourish. She jumped instanter into popular favor, and is now sweeping everything before her. Her real name is Fanny Brough. She was born in Illinois, but spent most of her girlhood days with her mother in Cincinnati. Her mother was divorced while Miss Marlowe was yet an infant, married again and is now the proprietress of a hostelry which has lately come into unpleasant notoriety at Porkopolis. Miss Marlowe's first appearance on the stage was with Josephine Riley in Chicago. She played a soubrette part. Then she became a chorus girl, and then a burlesquer, when she pranced, capered, and gyrated about the stage in tights in companies with such burlesquers as Ida Mulle and Ella Weston. And now, "presto change!" she is the great emotional actress of the day.

Modjeska's Honeymoon.

Still there is, as there has been, marrying and giving in marriage, and taking away in marriage, too. Modjeska tells a story about her honeymoon that is somewhat amusing. It was some years ago, but she still laughs about it. I am glad she does, so many women cry in later years over the happy incidents of their honeymoon. When the Count and Countess Bozenta went for their wedding trip, I think it was to Paris, I am not sure; it does not matter. One morning she had just got up and the Count had been out for an hour or two taking a morning walk. He came back and appeared to be excited.

"Helen! Helen! Come here."

"What is it?"

"Come here quick; I've brought you some lovely fruit, the first in the market."

"All right. I'm dressing. I'll come out as soon as I get ready."

She dressed leisurely and came out of her room. The Count was sitting reading, deeply interested in his book. She looked around. No fruit was to be seen. She looked all over the place. The Count looked up.

"What are you looking for?"

"Where's that fruit?"

The Count looked on the table. It was not there.

"Well," he said, "I'll be hanged if I haven't eaten it."—[San Francisco Chronicle.]

Modjeska will open here on the 25th inst., and will play Cymbeline, Mary Stuart, Adrienne Lecouvreur, Camille and As You Like It. The personnel of the company will include Mr. E. H. Vanderfelt, from the leading London theaters; Mr. E. J. Henley, late of Wallack's Theater company; Mr. George Osbourne, Mr. Henry Walton, from the New York theaters; Mr. George Paxton, from the Lyceum Theater, New York; Mr. Leo Cooper, Mr. H. B. Phillips, Mr. E. J. Holden, Mr. Geo. Turner, Mr. Paul Davis, Mr. Wm. Thomas, Mr. Robert M. Eberle, Miss Charlotte Tittel, Helen Mason Osbourne, Mrs. F. M. Bates, Miss Tnholsky and others.

The "Black Crook."

To-night the spectacular piece, Black Crook, will be produced by Irme Kiralfy's Company at the Grand Opera House. This production has never been given in Los Angelos althongh its fame has spread all over the United States. It comprises grand scenery, two ballets, the Amazon march, and a transformation scene at the end which is said to be magnificent. The piece will be put on here with all its appurtenances, the stage of the Grand Opera House being full of the traps necessary. During the performance, the aerial artists, the Ongar sisters, the acrobatic Dare brothers, the musical eccentrics, Bibb and Bobb, and the grotesque Mons. Arnold will amuse the audience. The house will be crowded to its utmost capacity.

An Afternoon Concert.

The Kerkow concerts at Washington Gardens, which take place each Sunday afternoon, are a feast of music. The eminent soloists who comprise the Hungarian Quartette are not equalled in any land. Mr. Kerkow, in his endeavor to furnish the music-loving people of Los Angeles with something superb, has met with success. Yesterday, at Washington Gardens, an enthusiastic throng of people were delighted. The programme rendered included numbers from Kral, Strauss, Suppe, Fenster, Peters, Romandy, Rosner, Resch, Heberling, Ross and Mayer. The "Kaetchen Gavotte" is an admirable composition of Isidor Fenster, of the quartette, and is worth hearing.

The Quintette Club.

The Boston Quintette Club will play at the Los Angeles Theater this evening. Storm doors have been placed in the auditorium and there will be no drafts to disturb the visitors. The programme to be rendered includes works by Svendsen, Terschak, Venzano, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Leonard, Brisson, Dunkler, Tschaikowsky, Denzy and Gillet. Miss Anna Carpenter, Oscar Hentschel, John F. Rhodes and Louis Blumenberg will be the soloists of the evening.

Carleton Coming.

A week from to-night the Carleton Opera Company will commence a week's engagement at the Grand Opera House. It brings with it a new opera entitled Mynheer Jan, said to be very comical and to contain a good deal of bright music. The company has lost none of the strength it had when it was here a year ago.

The Dime Museum.

Another installment of novelties for both the museum and theatre of this popular resort is offered this week. The museum contains James Battise, a "human sledge-hammer," who drives large spikes into a thick plank; Etta Clark, the double-jointed girl, and Captain Jessup's trained sea-lions; sleight-of-hand, Punch and Judy, the Circassian girl, etc. The amphitheater programme includes Tommy Adams, Daisy Brooks, Clifford and Hickey, Dr. Queen's vivisection, and Leon's performing donkeys, making, in all, an excellent show, which is well patronized, as usual.

A Youth's Reward.

"Ingratitude, thy name is woman," so says Henry Schell, a young man, who is on night duty at the Nadeau Hotel. Henry came to this philosophical conclusion on Saturday last. He had been a delighted visitor to the matinee at the Grand Opera House, and when leaving the theatre he found in one of the aisles a handsome lady's purse, which upon examination proved to contain a check for $150, some small change and a trunk key. The name on the check being a familiar one to the boy, he at once proceeded to East Los Angeles, where he thought the gentleman resided, but when he arrived at the house formerly occupied by the family, he learned that they had moved into the center of the city, where he found the lady who had dropped the purse. If Henry had, during his street-car ride in search of the owner of the purse, indulged in any visions of approaching wealth in the shape of a pecuniary reward, he was certainly doomed to disappointment, for the lady, upon receiving her lost treasure, simply thanked the lad and shut the door in his face. The young man is now out 10 cents for car fare and his feelings are considerably ruffled, so much so, that he finds it hard to believe in the truth of the old saying that "Honesty is the best policy."

A Sword Contest.

On next Sunday at the City Gardens Sergeant James Raftery will have a mounted sword contest with Sergeant Henry Roos. It will be an exciting exhibition of skill, as Roos holds the championship of the Pacific coast. The stakes are $500 and as the men are in earnest in the proving of their claims as expert broad-swordsmen, the fight will be a good one. Mr. Raftery has won distinction as an expert and master of the sword and will not disappoint his friends.

A NEW ROUTE.

An Important Addition to Local Traffic Accommodations.

On Saturday evening official notification was received in this city of the opening of what is practically a new route to Southern California. Heretofore passengers wishing to travel via the Northern Pacific Railroad had to pay an extra charge of $12 on a second-class ticket and $13 on a first-class ticket, for passage to Los Angeles, the Coast terminal point of the road being built from San Francisco. Now, however, passengers can be routed to any point in Southern California as far south as Colton on the Southern Pacific and to all points on the California Central and California Southern railroads for the same fare as to the Bay City; and vice versa, passengers from this section can be booked to points on the Northern Pacific without paying the local arbitraries. This means an important thing for Los Angeles, as hitherto residents along the line of the Northern Pacific desiring to make a pleasure trip to California would naturally buy their tickets to the northern part of the State, as by so doing they would save $26 on a round-trip first-class ticket. Now, however, they can come to Los Angeles for the same fare as they could to San Francisco, so an additional source of traffic revenue has been added to this section. The circular authorizing the change is issued by General Passenger Agent Goodman, of the Southern Pacific, and General Passenger Agent Chas. S. Fee, of the Northern Pacific.

WILL NOT LEAVE THE PRISON.

An Interesting Incident About Charley Angell.

Mr. Jay W. Adams, the obliging representative in this city of the Chicago and Alton, has on his desk a handsome Italian marble paper-weight, bearing his initials, with which is associated quite an interesting episode in railroad history. Old-timers will remember Charley Angell, the Secretary and Treasurer of the Pullman Company, in Chicago, who absconded about fifteen years ago with $80,000 of money and securities belonging to his employers, and who was captured in Spain by Pinkerton's men and brought back and condemned to serve a long term in the Joliet Penitentiary. He became clerk of the prison and on his release a short time ago Messrs. Pullman offered to take him back into their service. Agnell refused and said that he could not bear to face the world and his old associates again and would prefer to end his days in the prison. The Burlington Marble Company, most of whose work is done in Joliet by convict labor, knowing what an efficient man Angell is, have appointed him their cashier and bookkeeper at the salary of $3,000 a year, so Angell has opened up his offices within the prison and established himself there for life. Having had friendly relations with Mr. Adams while that gentleman was agent at Joliet for the Chicago and Alton, he has presented him with the token referred to.

A SPECIAL CAR.

Southern California to be Advertised in the East.

HOW IT WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED.

The Plan Which Has Been Arranged to Attract Settlers to This Country.

At last something is to be done toward the proper advertising of Southern California in the Eastern States. An organized effort is now on foot, urged by the skill and energy of a few men, to promote the neglected interests of this section by making its advantages better known throughout the East. Three years ago the present winter the advertising of Southern California began with the Citrus Fair in Chicago. This was followed, during the next two years, by a number of devices to make the people of the Eastern States appreciate the beauties of Southern California climate and the possibilities of its agriculture. With the decline of the boom in real estate, organized effort in this direction ceased almost entirely, and the work done by individuals suffered a great falling off. In the meantime, the northern half of the State has been manfully at work, and the result of their efforts shows in the fact that during most of this season thus far they have attracted a larger number of permanent immigrants than have gone to the South.

One of the purposes for which the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles county was organized, was to devise satisfactory plans for carrying on this work. A Committee on Immigration was appointed and put to work. They soon reported a scheme, which was discussed for several weeks without definite action being taken. Their plan was to stock several cars with the products of this section and to send them with several experienced men, as custodians, through the East, a traveling exposition. The plan was tried last winter by several Southern States with very satisfactory results. It had been adopted by the people of Oregon and of Washington Territory, and also had been used by the State Board of Trade of California to help along the interests of the northern part of the State—of which section that organization is the representative.

The plan as proposed by the Immigration Committee involved an outlay of $15,000. That was the only drawback connected with it. Everybody was free to admit that the idea was an excellent one, but from what source were the sinews of war to be supplied? After a good deal of discussion, the scheme was allowed to drop into innocuous desuetude.

A few weeks ago Mr. Charles E. Day, who is a member of the Chamber, announced at one of the meetings that a number of real estate firms and land syndicates had decided to send E. G. Northup, a practical stereopticon operator, through the East to give lectures and show views of Southern California scenery. He asked that the Chamber supply him with a number of copies of their pamphlet for distribution. On this root the scheme began to grow, until at last it has assumed respectable proportions, and is quite worthy of the section it is to represent. A sufficient number of firms and syndicates have been induced to go into it to make the question of means no longer an incomprehensible one, a route has been planned and arrangements made, and the excursion will probably be ready to start in two or three weeks.

As at present planned, the expedition will consist of two cars. One of them will be a passenger car with all the seats taken out. A long table will be put through the middle, leaving a narrow passage-way on each side, and a rack will be built up on it in pyramidal form, on which the exhibit of fruits, vegetables, cereals and mineral products will be tastefully arranged. The walls will be hung with pictures and printed descriptions of the Southern country.

The other car will be an emigrant, with all of the compartments, except what are needed for the use of the party, taken out. In the open space will be arranged the larger articles, such as pumpkins, beets, woods and mineral specimens, which cannot be conveniently disposed of in the other car. Every effort will be made to get together in the exhibit things which will be likely to attract and entertain visitors, as well as those which will convey to them a definite idea of the agricultural advantages of the country which is being advertised.

The party will consist of about five people. The first man to appear on the scene will be the advance agent, who will arrange for the use of a convenient side track and hire a hall for the stereopticon display. He will also stir up the newspapers and do what he can toward exciting interest in the exhibit when it shall arrive. With the car there will be the lecturer and general manager, an assistant or two, the operator of the stereopticon and a porter. The lecturer for the expedition is S. J. Mathes, and the stereopticon will be managed by E. G. Northup. He is making a collection of views, not only of the scenery of the section, but also of views of orchards, farm land and the public improvements of the cities. These will be made into transparencies and used to illustrate free lectures, which will be delivered by Mr. Mathes in the various towns which are visited.

The route, as mapped out, will begin at Chicago and extend along the Chicago and Atlantic through Northern Indiana and Ohio, then through New York by the Erie and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and through Massachusetts by the Hoosac tunnel route. As to the return the questions of time and funds will be such important factors in determining it that it cannot yet be planned.

The cost of the expedition will be about $6,000. The Chamber of Commerce agrees to furnish $750 and all the printed matter concerning Los Angeles which will be needed. The scheme is endorsed and in one sense fathered by the Chamber, with the understanding that all matter of a private or advertising nature which is to pass through the hands of the exhibition must be subject to the approval of the Chamber. The direct advantage gained by the various firms who pay the expenses of the undertaking is not large. It consists chiefly in the accumulation of lists of names of people along the route who are interested in California to whom printed information can be sent. It is chiefly for the indirect advantages that these firms have been induced to go into the undertaking.

The practical manager of the scheme thus far has been Mr. C. E. Day. He will probably go East with the expedition as far as Chicago, and then return to manage the collection and forwarding of exhibits. Fruits and perishable materials will have to be renewed every two weeks. Mr. Day will spend the next two weeks in collecting the stuff for the exhibition and in planning the details of the undertaking. He is open to suggestions of all kinds.

The cars will leave from Los Angeles and go over the Santa Fe route, which furnishes the projectors with the transportation gratis—except that the party is compelled to pay fares. Mr. Day will visit various Boards of Trades of the southern country and endeavor to secure co-operation on all sides in the undertaking.

Excursion News.

Two big excursions will arrive in the city during the week, and a number of small ones, enquiry at the various ticket offices yesterday eliciting the fact that the following parties are en route:

A Warner Bros. excursion, traveling in a special train over the Santa Fe, due here at 9:30 A. M. Tuesday.

A Walters excursion, via the Chicago and Alton and Central Pacific, to arrive in town on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The party consists of three carloads.

A Chatterton excursion, from Boston, to arrive on Wednesday.

Regular weekly Burlington, Union Pacific and Texas and Pacific excursion, to arrive on Wednesday.

"At Home."

Company F, Seventh Regiment, N. G. C., will give an "at home" this evening at Armory Hall. The entertainment will consist mainly of dancing, which will commence at 8:30. A large number of invitations have been issued and a big and select attendance is expected. The committees of the evening are as follows:

On Reception—Lieutenant J. G. Scarborough, chairman; Frank Dinsmore, Frank Finlayson, Frank Peck and John Off.

Floor Committee—John McLean, director; I. S. Miles, G. L. Taft, John Franklin and Oscar Ragland.

Cattle for the North.

Twenty-one carloads of cattle from Arizona passed through the city yesterday en route to San Francisco. This is an unusual event, as hitherto the Bay City has received its meat supplies from the Nevada ranges and the enormous ranches of Miller & Lux in the central and northern parts of the State. It is an evidence of the fact that California is fast passing from a grazing country to a strictly agricultural section, and this is well illustrated in the Los Angeles markets, for although this section once shipped beeves to the north, it now has to import about fifty carloads of stock weekly from Arizona to keep pace with the demands.

THE LUCKY ONES.

Lifted From a Life of Labor to Comparative Opulence.

Fortune has not only smiled upon A. W. Adams, of this city, but her face has taken on a broad grin. This facial expansion is justifiable, and the dear creature could even be forgiven for bursting out into loud and uproarious shouts of joyous laughter, for Mr. Adams yesterday received $15,000, all in shining gold pieces, for the paltry investment of $1 in the November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery.

Mr. Adams is a carpenter by occupation and resides at 915 Guerrero street.

"It's a great stroke of luck," he said to a Call reporter. "When I bought the ticket I had but the faintest, dream-iest, far-away idea that such fortune would be mine.

"I have been a hard-working man all my life, never hoping for more than the common comforts that attend industry and frugality, and it was left for The Louisiana State Lottery to raise me in one day from the necessity of labor to moderate opulence. What I thought was a dollar wasted proved to be a great speculation."

Mr. Adams is not yet 50 years old, and being in robust health, will be able to spend many years in the quiet enjoyment of his snug little fortune. He is intellectually capable of appreciating the many pleasing features of life, and after satiating his fancy for travel, will still have a sufficient competency to make the evening of his life pleasant.

There is a rumor whispered about, only in the strictest confidence, that Cupid will cut a figure in this turn in Mr. Adams' fortune, and that in winning a prize in the Louisiana State Lottery he gained confidence in his speculative sagacity and will soon take a coupon in the matrimonial market.

Mr. Adams does not deny this soft impeachment, but merely says; "I wonder how they found it out?"

The wife of Max J. Franklin, of the firm of Greenzweig & Co., Jewelers, is the lucky winner of $5,000 in the same drawing which enriched Adams.—[San Francisco (Cal.) Call, December 2d.

BUCKING THE TIGER.

What a Montana Miner Proposes to Do if He Wins a Hotel.

The offices of the Montana Investment Company, of Helena, M. T., which is disposing of the Aborn House, of Des Moines, Ia., and 153 cash prizes, ranging from $5,000 down to $10, by a drawing, have some queer experiences. A Helena paper tells of a rough miner who walked into the company's office recently and inquired for tickets. Asked as to whether he wanted a $5 ticket or only a fifth, he said: "I just want to invest $20 in this scheme. For twenty years I have prospected and never made more any year than $500. You say this hotel is worth $300,000. This is my last $20. If I don't spend it with you I will blow it in against faro. Give me four whole tickets, and if I win that hotel I will buck the tiger for twelve months straight." After getting his tickets he said: "This is a square deal, pard?" He was assured that the deed for the property was in the First National Bank, and could only be transferred to the winner. He then asked when the drawing would take place and how he or his friends could send for tickets if they so desired. He was told the date was March 30, and that all orders sent to the Montana Investment Co., Helena, M. T., would receive prompt attention. Expressing his thanks for the information, he departed, apparently banking a great deal on his luck.—[Texas Siftings.

Undeservedly Laughed At.

The unthinking are prone to make game of nervousness. Yet this is a very real and serious affliction, the harassing symptoms of which are rendered all the more poignant by ridicule. The stomach is usually responsible for these symptoms—its weakness and disorder find a reflex in the brain, which is the headquarters of the nervous system. As a nerve tonic and tranquillizer, we believe that not one can be pointed out so effective as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In renewing vigorous digestion, it strikes the key note of recovery of strength and quietude by the nerves. Headaches, tremors unquiet sleep, abnormal sensitiveness to unexpected noises—all these modify and ultimately disappear as the system gains strength from the great tonic. Dyspepsia, biliousness, rheumatism, constipation and kidney complaints are subdued by the Bitters.

Another Fall in Plunder.

The proprietors of the Plunder Store, 19 North Main street, are determined that their winter stock of clothing must go. They have made immense reductions this week in every line of clothing in their establishment, as room must be made for spring stock. They are offering extraordinary bargains in men's and boys' overcoats. They are selling very good overcoats for $2.98, $3.48 and $3.98. These goods must certainly have cost more at the factory. They are offering cassimere suits this week at $3.48 and $4.98; English worsted suits, $5.98, and four-button cutaway dress suits, $12.50. I. Weinman & Co., proprietors of the Plunder Store, 19 North Main street, manufacture all their own clothing in New York, which they offer to the Los Angeles public direct from their factory, thus enabling them them to sell cheaper than any competitor.

"Brown, whose hams do you use?" "I always buy the 'Lilly,' put up by the Los Angeles Cold Storage Company." "Why do you prefer the 'Lilly' hams?" "Because they are sweeter, and are smoked in this city. All hams not branded the 'Lilly' are smoked either at San Francisco or in the Eastern cities, and you cannot tell how long they have been smoked before shipping, and then they are from ten to fifteen days on the road; so you see they are quite ancient by the time they reach Los Angeles, while the 'Lilly' hams are put on the market fresh every day."

They hope patrons will call in early and secure good value at very low prices.

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1889.

YESTERDAY was a perfect day—one of those typical mid-May dispensations which make one wonder whether the weather in Paradise could have been more delightful. The good citizen, after going to church, hied him to the seaside or the mountain—both of which are within an hour and a half's drive of Los Angeles.

THERE seems to be a movement on foot to nominate Gen. John Mansfield as the Republican candidate for Mayor. The General has met the movement very amiably, and is in the attitude of the willing Barkis. He undoubtedly believes in picking his flint and trying again. He was beaten for Mayor by Captain Thom some years ago, and it would doubtless be placatory to his feelings to be chosen now. Our esteemed fellow-citizen, however, knows of old that there is many a slip betwixt the cup and the lip.

SOME anonymous scribe writes this office a scurrilous communication from Pomona complaining of the HERALD because we said that that delightful and progressive place—the creation of the other day—would sell over $57,000 worth of oranges this year. We do not see anything like a mean animus on our part in making this statement. We gathered it in substance, from the columns of our excellent contemporary, the Pomona Times, and supposed that we were doing the people of that place a kindness in giving it a more general circulation.

THE road extravagance in Los Angeles County, in which nearly one hundred thousand dollars were eaten up during the past year, is clearly referable to a vicious system by which, no matter how great might be the expenditures, the people would derive no substantial benefit. The road overseer rakes in the persimmon. While having only a nominal office he is the beneficiary of the most perfect sinecure which exists on earth. All he has to do is to mark himself down so much a day for himself and his teams and smoke his pipe in peace and quietness under the shade of some noble sycamore or pepper tree. If he becomes tired of the seclusion of the country he can drive into town and play poker in the cosy back office of some convenient saloon until it is time to go home. He dare not trust himself to go back over his own roads after dark. He is entirely too wise in his day and generation for that. Meanwhile, the county treasury is depleted, and our roads are a subject for special wonder. In addition to the road overseers getting away with sums ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 on their special road sections, with, in most cases, nothing to show for the expenditure, in this large sum-total there is an item of $18,000 for a general road fund. We do not think there is anything in the law justifying such an appropriation, but we shall take occasion to find out.

THE HERALD has repeatedly called attention of late to the fact that grapes will this year command a good figure. For some years past winemakers have had everything their own way. As a result they diligently pursued the policy of killing the goose that laid the golden egg. Notwithstanding that the demand for California wines has kept right on, the winemakers have insisted on crushing out the producer, or, at least, their policy was in that direction. As a result, the supply of grapes is now inadequate to the legitimate demands of the trade, with the resultant advantage to the vineyardist that he can now make practically his own terms. The fact is generally overlooked that Los Angeles county is as yet in its infancy as an orange and vine-bearing region. It was only the other day that the whole expanse of our beautiful valley, with the exception of choice regions in the San Gabriel and within the city limits, was given up to grazing. This county was one of what was known as the "cow" counties par excellence of the State. In making our way to the recognized status of the chief horticultural and agricultural region of the United States we shall, of course, experience many ups and downs, and as to our vineyard interests, we have just passed through one of the latter. The era for a good price for grapes has again returned, and we have learned, as an incident of the visit of the vine pest, that the most prolific and valuable of the foreign varieties of the grape are free from its ravages. Everything points to the fact that both the orange and the grape will be sources of greater profit in the future than they have ever been in the past.

The Samoan Difficulty.

It would really seem as if our relations with Germany were becoming quite grave. Bismarck has always shown a peculiar brusqueness in his course towards this country, probably on the principle that our habits and institutions are so thoroughly opposed to the absolutist idea. Just now he has selected an opportunity for difference, when our navy is a-building, but is not quite built, that makes his domineering methods specially disagreeable. There is one feature about the situation, however, that makes the American feel pretty easy in his mind. The United States is the only country in the world that has a large surplus revenue, and whose bonded indebtedness commands a large premium just in proportion to the length of time it has to run. The first Napoleon said that an army traveled on its stomach, and a nation may be said to travel on its purse. Uncle Sam's is a long one, and with his ample credit in the money markets of the world, within a month he would command naval armaments that would make Bismarck think that Louis Napoleon's folly in the invasion of Mexico had been more than paralleled by his own foolish break in the Islands of the Pacific. The attitude of the United States, thus far, is far from as clear as it ought to be. The Secretary of the Navy seems to have done his duty in a very intelligent and decisive way as a patriotic American. He has thrown the onus on the Secretary of State, and thus far Mr. Bayard does not seem to have caught the resolute spirit of a Webster or a Marcy. Congress has been prompt in voting ample supplies for any contingency, but the State Department would seem to be notably remiss. The whole episode is a remarkable one, and very much to be deplored, but in international affairs, the unexpected is always sure to happen. Prince Bismarck, in his speech in the Reichstag, has sought to buttress himself by the assertion that Germany and England had been at one for upwards of one hundred and fifty years. The attitude of England in the embroglio will therefore be awaited with special interest in this country. As the case is presented now, Germany seems to have wantonly violated a treaty which she voluntarily entered into with the United States and England respecting the Samoan islands, and this country has no recourse but to compel her to conform to treaty obligations or fight. The dispatches say that President-elect Harrison regards the crisis as a grave one, and he is probably right. As he is so soon to take hold of the helm of State, Mr. Cleveland's administration may defer largely to his views in shaping its attitude. Bismarck, in alluding to the long period during which England and Germany were "at touch" of the elbow, so to speak, ignored the fact that since the United States was a Republic there has been no interruption to the friendly relations between America and Germany. The great Frederick was a warm friend of the young Republic, and we have so many Germans and German-Americans in our midst that it would almost look like an internecine war to have the two countries come together in the clash of arms.

Pleasures of the Imagination.

The Eastern press, in too many instances, does violence to its sense, and to its sense of decency, in its mendacious outgivings supposed and intended to injure California. One of the latest and worst specimens comes from the Syracuse, N. Y., Standard, and runs as follows:

They are making great efforts in California to induce emigration to that State. They have an exhibition of the products of the State running around the balance of the United States upon wheels—a sort of railroad traveling show. California may have, and no doubt has, a fine climate and agricultural and horticultural capacity. But these are small considerations when balanced against the law-breaking spirit rampant there; the sacredness of contracts in that State is not held in high regard. There is a place called Placerville in the county of El Dorado, California, an organized city, having a Mayor, Councilmen, etc. Placerville had occasion to issue its bonds to raise money to construct a railroad in which the city was deeply interested, and which is now operated to its benefit. These bonds were put upon the market, and, like other securities of the kind, were circulated and sold to innocent purchasers. Some of them came into the hands of a highly esteemed citizen of Syracuse, and that gentleman has, for many years, been endeavoring to force their payment. No defense is even pretended to exist against them on the part of the city, and four courts have decided that they must be paid, but the law in California is in such a weak and unsatisfactory condition that it has proven insufficient in this case for the purposes of justice. In order to avoid a mandamus the Mayor and the Councilmen resigned, and all for a time took to the woods to avoid paying an acknowledged debt. So it happens that no one can to-day be found who can be compelled to levy a tax for the payment of the bonds. All the officials are refugees from justice, and public sentiment in the city and county approves their conduct. Among the other marvels of California, perhaps there is none so striking as that of an organized government outlawed and running away like a thief from the officers of the law. Respectable people, who like the security of the law and believe in the sacredness of contracts, will hardly care to go in that direction, and will liberally discount the representations of the agents of the Far West when they recommend California, and especially Placerville, in El Dorado county, as a place for the investment of capital.

Now, where, in the name of all that is wonderful, did this Eastern esteemed contemporary come across this fable about the present authorities of charming old "Hang Town?" What a beautiful bit of artistic work, wrought from the fervid imagination of a man worthy to step into the shoes of Tom Ochiltree, it is! What a mercy there is no power of working miracles in these days, or the fate of Mr. and Mrs. Ananias would surely overtake the fellow who concocted that story! How Belial must blush as he lays this chef d'œuvre of mendacity beside his own best performance in the "whole-cloth" line!

Now, Mr. Standard, there is no city in your own great Empire State whose credit is better than that of the towns and counties of California. There is no community in your State more under the security of law than ours. Contracts are as sacred here as they are in any portion of this great Union. We have no city, county or State officials that are refuges from justice, and if we had, there is no sentiment, public or private, that would approve of such acts.

The most respectable people, with the most straight-laced and punctilious regard for law and order, will find this State a very congenial home.

THE HERALD is indebted to Hon. Wm. Ham Hall, State Engineer, for a copy of his report to the Governor, and also for a copy of the second part of his voluminous report on the irrigation systems of the State. This volume treats of the counties of San Bernardino, San Diego and Los Angeles. It is a royal octavo of nearly 700 pages, well printed and bound in the State Printing Office. It is profusely illustrated by cuts of dams, ditches and other material adjuncts of the irrigation systems of the counties in question. The volume is also supplemented by a series of very valuable maps of the irrigable surfaces of these counties, and of the drainage area and rainfall watersheds of the whole State. The volume is in all respects a valuable one. It contains much data and will serve to crystallize for future reference much important information touching the system of irrigation here. It is also of great value immediately in giving us exact information, on water rights, ditches and other cognate subjects. Mr. Hall's incumbency of this office has not been a sinecure to him.

AMONG the minor industries that might well be set on foot in this section is that of oyster breeding. It is reported that Alamitos Bay offers facilities for this business. There are other places along the coast between San Pedro and San Diego where beds could be established. At Alameda in San Francisco Bay, fine beds have been made to flourish. At Shoalwater Bay and other places near the mouth of the Columbia the enterprise has succeeded excellently. There are a great many of the succulent bivalves consumed by Los Angeleños. The great desideratum of the times is to produce here more of the things we use in our daily life, and thus stop the great drain being made on our financial resources. The consumption of oysters may not involve the expenditure of millions, but if we can cut off a few thousands here and a few there of the coin going out of the section, it will be so much the better for us. Will some one look into this matter? and if Alamitos Bay is found to be a proper place for oyster propagation, by all means let the experiment be tried there.

IF LOS ANGELES could get rid of her croaker fraternity this would be a very happy community. With everything on the face of the earth to encourage one to investment, this solid and sordid old guild stand around and discourage the investor. The telegrams show that the lands are selling in the Salinas Valley, near Watsonville, at $350 an acre. And yet if anybody now-a-days on the San Felipe Lugo or San Francisquito ranchos were to ask $250 an acre, in the finest railway center of America, and the very heart of the American Riviera, people would be shocked. They would be shocked notwithstanding the fact that on these Los Angeles lands roasting ears could be raised for shipment in December and January, together with a Fall crop of corn which would run from 100 to 150 bushels an acre. The day is not distant when the people just now buzzed by the croaker, will regret that they were not broader between the eyes. The cheapest lands in California just now are those which can be picked up in this county.

THE delinquent tax list of Los Angeles county, which the HERALD is now engaged in preparing for publication, contains nearly 20,000 items. It will take thirty-six pages of this journal to carry the list and its indexes.

The Game of Life.

A HOMILY.

There's a game much in fashion—I think it's called Euchre,
(Though I never have played it for pleasure or lucre,)
In which, when the cards are in certain conditions,
The players appear to have changed their positions.
And one of them cries in a confident tone,
"I think I may venture to go it alone!"

While watching the game, 'tis a whim of the bard's
A moral to draw from that skirmish of cards
And to fancy he finds in the trivial strife
Some excellent hints from the battle of Life;
Where—whether the prize be a ribbon or throne—
The winner is he who can go it alone!

When great Galileo proclaimed that the world
In a regular orbit was ceaselessly whirled,
And got—not a convert—for all of his pains,
But only derision and prison and chains.
"It moves, for all that!" was his answering tone,
For he knew, like the earth, he could go it alone;

When Kepler, with intellect piercing afar,
Discovered the laws of each planet and star,
And doctors, who ought to have lauded his name,
Derided his learning and blackened his fame,
"I can wait!" he replied, "till the truth you shall own;"
And he felt in his heart he could go it alone!

Alas! for the player who idly depends,
In the struggle of life, upon kindred or friends;
Whatever the value the blessings like these,
They can never atone for inglorious ease,
Nor comfort the coward who finds, with a groan,
That his crutches have left him to go it alone

There's something, no doubt, in the hand you may hold,
Health, family, culture, wit, beauty and gold,
The fortunate owner may fairly regard
As, each in its way, a most excellent card:
Yet the game may be lost, with all these for your own,
Unless you've the courage to go it alone.

In battle or business, whatever the game,
In law or in love, it is ever the same;
In the struggle for power, or the scramble for pelf,
Let this be your motto: Rely on yourself!
For whether the prize be a ribbon or throne,
The victor is he who can go it alone!

"Let me ask you, Mr. ——." "Yes, Miss Snooksbury, I have read 'Robert Elsmere' and I think it's a great book." "But I wasn't thinking of that. I wanted to know —" "If I consider marriage a failure? Well, I wouldn't like to venture an opinion."—[Lincoln Journal.

AT HARRISON'S HOME.

Significance of Allison's Visit to the General.

PROBABLE CABINET TIMBER.

An Emphatic Expression of Opinion on the Samoan Difficulty—An Adjustment Probable.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

INDIANAPOLIS, January 27.—Senators Allison and Cullom arrived at noon to-day. They were met at the station by Private Secretary Halford and taken at once to General Harrison's house and lunched with him. A prolonged consultation followed, Senator Cullom leaving at 5 o'clock for his hotel and Senator Allison remaining at the General's. It is understood that they came here on invitation; but about the objects of the visit there are many opinions. The long consultation of Quay and Allison, who are remaining over until to-morrow, is taken as an evidence that the latter is to go into the Cabinet, and that the remainder of his stay will be devoted to a discussion as to the other members. There is a feeling here that it is the State and not the Treasury Department that he is to to occupy.

General Harrison was as reticent as ever when seen this evening, and simply said he had nothing to give out. While there is no doubt that the Cabinet question was considered at some length, there is reason to believe that the Samoan matter was the chief topic of conversation during the afternoon. Senator Cullom said to a correspondent this evening that the Samoan question was discussed, and while not at liberty to say what General Harrison thought of the matter, he did give his own views. He said: "I am not in favor of permitting any country to throw brickbats at us. I am an American all through, and think we are big enough to take care of ourselves under all circumstances. However, while the Samoan matter looks serious at present, I believe the coming administration will reach adjustments satisfactory to the country. I think a solution will be reached without difficulty." He added that there would be no yielding on our side, but a settlement would be reached on a dignified basis. He thought we would not be without an adequate navy very long, and in the meantime there would be no yielding of our position for want of a first-class navy.

As an intimation of how General Harrison stands on the Samoan question, the following from his letter of acceptance is not without interest at this time, and may be regarded as very significant in view of what Senator Cullom said: "Our relations with foreign powers should be characterized by friendliness and respect. The rights of our people and of our ships to hospitable treatment should be insisted upon with dignity. Our nation is too great, both in material strength and in moral power, to indulge in bluster or to be suspected of timorousness, vacillation and inconsistency, which are as incompatible with successful diplomacy as they are with national dignity."

When asked about the Cabinet, Senator Cullom said: "Allison undoubtedly can be in the Cabinet if he wants to, but I am not at liberty to say whether he intends to go in or not. You can readily understand my position."

To sustain the idea that it is the State and not the Treasury Department Allison is to have, the fact that the Samoan question is, and that it would be more directly, under the State Department is cited. If any other statesman than Allison was to occupy that department, it is claimed, he would have been called here and not Allison.

Senator Cullom left this evening for Springfield. Senator Allison remained at General Harrison's to-night and was inaccessible to correspondents.

THE A. T. & S. F. ROAD.

Statement of the Financial Results of Eleven Months' Working.

BOSTON, January 27.—Joseph W. Reinhart, Comptroller and General Auditor of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, has submitted the advance sheets of his full report for the eleven months ending November 30, 1888, which shows the following results: Mileage of the Atchison system proper, 3,019 miles; gross earnings, $14,297,468; expenses, 67.7 per cent., $9,673,725 net earnings, $4,623,693; receipts from interest on bonds of railroads owned by by the Atchison and used as collateral, $503,892; direct fixed charges, interest on bonds and notes, taxes and sinking fund requirements, $4,513,246; net profit, $619,339; receipts from other sources, $446,660; total profits, $1,066,000; dividends, $2,625,000; deficiency, $1,558,990; gross debt originating in the period, $8,643,304; offsets, $3,456,412; net floating debt, $5,185,891; supplies on hand as offset to future operating expenses, $1,528,118.97. Of the debt above shown, $5,183,891 was due and payable prior to July 1, 1889, on guarantee notes, subscribed for in the amount of $7,000,000. There had been called up to November 30, 1886, $700,000; leaving $6,300,000 not nor called paid in. The total income surplus to December 31, 1888, was $7,940,622; deficiency for the eleven months ending November 30, 1888, made a net general income surplus, to that date, of $6,381,622, but the addition of various sundry surplus accounts swelled this amount, so that the total general surplus, on November 30, was $9,509,633; the estimated net profit from operations, after all charges for the month of December are deducted, is $150,000; total net deficiency of the company for a period of twelve months, to December 31st, including the actual figures of November 30th; and December is estimated at $1,408,999.94. From actual statements to November 30th, and approximates for December, the auxiliary roads of the Atchison system, inclusive of those owned jointly, will show that they have failed to earn fixed charges of all descriptions by about $3,000,000. Of this they have contributed about $1,800,000; the remainder having been advanced by the Atchison.

Anarchists Getting Bold.

CHICAGO, January 27.—Three thousand persons attended the festival and ball given this afternoon and evening for the benefit of the families of executed and imprisoned Anarchists. The walls were crowded with caricatures, such as policemen blown up by dynamite bombs, allegorical figures representing Christianity and Judaism falling dead, and others of a more revolting type. Editor Chritensen, of the Arbeiter Zeitung, delivered a eulogy on the "heroes" and "sacred martyrs" who were sleeping the last sleep in Waldheim. He predicted that a cyclone would yet sweep over the land and wipe the capitalistic robbers from the face of the earth.

Killed By Strikers.

NEW YORK, January 27.—The first fatality in connection with the Surface Railway strike is reported by the police to-day. The body of Henry Adams, a stableman, was found beside the stable of the Ninth Avenue Line. John Schumaker, a watchman, confessed to-night that he had admitted three strikers to the stable to talk with Adams to induce him to leave the place. The strikers were arrested.

A Wife Strangled.

ST. LOUIS, January 27.—Mrs. Maggie Fischer, wife of Milton Fischer, living at Bearnan, a village six miles from Sedalia, was strangled to death last Saturday night, and her husband and sister, Miss Swearing, with whom Fischer is said to be on too intimate terms, have been arrested and charged with the murder.

Dudley to be Indicted.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 27.—It is reported to-night that an indictment has been found against Colonel W. W. Dudley by the United States Grand Jury, and that the District Attorney is preparing the document so that it may be submitted early this week. There is pretty good reason for believing that the report is reliable.

A Serious Collision.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, January 27.—A fast stock train on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio road collided, this morning, with a light engine on a bridge near Galion. The engines were badly wrecked and the engineer, firemen and three men riding on the light engine were very seriously, but not fatally hurt.

A Clearing-House Statement.

BOSTON, January 27.—A table compiled from the dispatches to the Post from the managers of the leading clearing houses of the United States shows that the total gross exchanges, for the week ending January 27th, were $1,019,632,247, an increase of 17.7 per cent. as compared with the corresponding week last year.

A Brace of Diamond Thieves.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Jack Burgess, the prize fighter, and his wife, are supposed to be on their way to the Pacific Slope with the proceeds of $4,000 worth of diamonds, which Mrs. Burgess stole from her sister, Mrs. Hewitt, of 207 East Fortieth street, yesterday.

They Object to Salt Sprinkling.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Under escort of the police, Richardson's company started the salt-sprinkling wagon over the line to-day. Howling mobs followed and an officer received an ugly scalp wound from a stone. At midnight the entire police reserve was ordered out.

A Would-Be Murderer Suicides.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Anthony Schneider to-day shot Mrs. Kate Gebhardt and then killed himself. He also fired several shots at Mrs. Gebhardt's children. Mrs. Gebhardt may recover.

A Foreign Consul Dead.

NEW YORK, January 27.—The Austrian Consul-General, Hugo Fritch, died to-night.

Khartoum News.

SUAKIM, January 27.—A prominent merchant from Khartoum confirms the report that the Mahdi was defeated by Senussi. He also declares that the white prisoner was not a European, and certainly not Emin.

The Czarina Not Sick.

ST. PETERSBURG, January 27.—The report that the Czarina is ill, is untrue. She does not intend to go abroad.

How Prunes Are Prepared.

Certain dealers in prunes in San Francisco demand that the fruit be very dark in color, indeed nearly black, so as to imitate as nearly as possible the imported French prunes. To satisfy this demand some have resorted to artificial means to make their fruit look dark enough for the market.

The natural color of a California prune carefully and cleanly prepared is not black, but a rich clear brown, with a tendency toward transparency, and when buyers get such fruit they get the fruit which is really best in quality and without the remotest suspicion of adulteration.

It is easy to color prunes to any desired darkness of color. They may be dipped into a dark syrup, or they may be colored by an infusion of logwood, or any dark coloring matter not positively injurious.

We are now speaking of the California prunes, simply dried and packed for the market without any special processing.

Besides this method of preparation, there are three others intended to fit the prunes to take the place of the fine French article which is so generally used as a confection or dessert.

S. F. Lieb prepares his crop, after being dried in the usual manner, by exposure to steam heat of rather high degree, by means of an apparatus of his own design, from which they come darkened considerably in color and having a cooked taste similar to the French preparation, and by many greatly preferred to it. They are packed in ten-pound tins which are lined with the finest parchment paper, entirely impervious to acid or moisture. Mr. Lieb has an electrical attachment to his apparatus, which insures the treatment of every batch exactly the same, producing perfect uniformity.

A company in San Francisco claim to process prunes exactly the same as is done in France. We have not tasted of the product, and cannot therefore tell how they succeed in imitating the taste. Mr. J. B. Koch is the agent for this company.

W. W. Cozzens & Co. are putting out a quantity of the very best prunes, processed in a new way, which makes them very tender and fine for eating as a confection or dessert, and retaining more of the natural color than the other processes. We are told that this is to be the "California process," and that shipments that have been made to Eastern cities, where French prunes have been mostly used, have found great favor. These are packed in cans of ten pounds.

We believe, and others also with whom we have talked, that these processed prunes should be put up in smaller packages, even as small as one pound, and from that up to ten.—[Santa Clara Valley.

BOULANGER WINS.

The Ex-Minister of War Victorious at the Polls.

FLOQUET'S MINISTRY DOOMED.

A Remarkable Absence of Rioting, Owing to Strict Police and Military Precautions.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

PARIS, January 27.—The polls closed at 6 P. M. The attendance of the voters was unprecedentedly large. Perfect quiet prevails. Few police are seen on the streets, nearly all being held in reserve. The cabinet is summoned to meet at the Ministry of the Interior to-morrow.

[10:40 P. M.]—The result in twenty divisions is, Boulanger 112,000; Jacques, 77,000. The excitement is intensifying.

PARIS, January 27.—Every quarter of Paris was enlivened last evening by street brawls between the supporters and opponents of General Boulanger. The most violent took place in Montmartre, where a number of persons were wounded. The police interfered and arrested several of the ring-leaders. Another serious collision occurred in the Faubourg du Temple, where several persons were injured. At several electoral meetings there were scenes of great disorder. Bands of men and lads, singing the Marseillaise and Boulangist songs, paraded the boulevards until a late hour.

In the Place de la Republique and the Place de l'Opera open-air meetings were held. Great masses of people were present, but the proceedings were, on the whole, fairly orderly. To-day opened fine, and at an early hour the streets began to fill with people. At noon the electors were thronging toward the 266 balloting stations. The Boulangists were everywhere first at the voting places and displayed the greatest confidence. The Prefect of Police enlisted the services of a large number of householders to aid the police in maintaining order. Troops were held in readiness at various points and cavalry patrolled the streets and dispersed all gatherings. The municipal guards lined the boulevards, and in every quarter the police and military were prepared to suppress any outbreak.

The complete returns show the following result: Boulanger 244,070, Jacques 162,520, Boule 16,760, other candidates 1,038. Boulanger's plurality 81,550, and his majority 54,432. The members of the government are astounded at the result and bets are freely offered that the Ministry will resign to-morrow. The Boulangists predict the immediate fall of the Floquet Ministry, the dissolution of Parliament and a general election in March. They also forecast a rupture in the Radical party and express the belief that forty Radical Deputies will join the Boulangist ranks and thus give the General a following of sixty members in the present chamber.

On the Petite Bourse, after the election, rentes declined 5 cents for money and 25 cents for account. Great excitement prevailed on the boulevards during the night. The police did not interfere. Ten thousand persons assembled outside the Cafe Durand, cheering and singing. When Boulanger was leaving in his carriage after the announcement of the result, he passed a restaurant, opposite to the Cafe Durand, where the friends of the Government were assembled. The latter hissed loudly and Boulanger's friends replied by throwing stones.

Boulanger will resign the Seine seat, retaining that for the Nord Department. It is rumored that Magnin, Governor of the Bank of France, will be asked to form a Cabinet.

PARIS, January 27.—The Cabinet sat from 11 P. M. until 1 A. M. Premier Floquet informed President Carnot that the Cabinet was prepared to resign if the President considered such a step advisable. Several of the ministers advocated a reconstruction of the Cabinet on a wider basis. They proposed to include in the new ministry influential men from all the Republican sections. President Carnot awaits the result of to-day's sitting of the Chamber of Deputies before coming to a conclusion.

Boulanger's organization to-day was marvelously perfect, while that of Jacques was greatly inferior. Louise Michel worked hard in behalf of the General, and was largely instrumental in securing the victory.

De Lesseps claims credit for the General's immense majority, as the result of his telling his clients how to vote and his publicly dining Boulanger.

Congratulating the Kaiser.

BERLIN, January 27.—The birthday of the Emperor was generally observed to-day. The Emperor received in the White Hall of the Castle many of the German sovereigns, Prince Bismarck, the Ministers, Count Von Moltke, the Knights of the Eagle order, and foreign diplomatic representatives, who felicitated him on the occasion. The colors of the Guards were removed from the old palace to the castle. The Emperor issued an order eulogizing the achievements of the Guards, and expressing the hope that they would maintain their glory. Much enthusiasm was manifested in this city and the provinces. The Emperor received messages of congratulation from his mother, from the Emperor of Austria, the King of Italy and the Queen of England.

England Does Not Approve.

LONDON, January 20.—The Times says: "Englishmen will be curious to know the exact value of Prince Bismarck's assertion that Germany is absolutely at one with England in regard to Samoa. It is difficult to believe that England is giving any kind of approval to the deportation of Malietoa, or to Germany's intervention between Tamasese and Malietoa's partisans."

The Daily News, in view of Bismarck's speech on the African question, wants to know what is the price of Bismarck's friendship; and, in regard to Samoa, what further sacrifice of national dignity England is to make.

An Arab Defeat.

ZANZIBAR, January 27.—An engagement took place at Dar Es Salaam, on Friday, resulting in the defeat of the Arabs, many of whom were killed. During the fight the First Lieutenant of the German war ship Sophie was killed by a sunstroke. The defeat of the Arabs renders the position of the captured missionaries still more dangerous.

A Riot in Rome.

ROME, January 27.—A demonstration was made by the Radicals to-day to celebrate the anniversary of the battle of Difiore. The proceedings were orderly, until one of the speakers alluded in offensive terms to King Humbert. This led to a conflict with the police, several of whom were injured. Fifteen persons were arrested.

A MIDNIGHT ASSASSIN.

Fusilade Poured into the Windows of a Cabin.

A BLOOD-THIRSTY POLANDER.

The Mother Shot Dead in Her Tracks and a Little Granddaughter Fatally Wounded.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LANSING, Mich., January 27.—A horrible murder was committed last night at Delphi, a township seven miles from this city. Christian Stochal, a Polander, resides on a small farm near here with his family, consisting of his wife, aged 63 years, his son, aged 30, and Minnie Falz, 13 years old, a grand-daughter. Stochal went to bed at 8 o'clock last night in the only room in the cabin. Minnie retired a short time later to another bed, and the grand-mother was disrobing, when a gun was discharged just outside the east window of the cabin. The shot crashed through the window and struck Mrs. Stochal over the heart. Minnie sprang up in bed at the sound of the shot, and the gun was discharged a second time, the load striking the child in the breast. Minnie sprang up a ladder in the corner of the room to the loft above and her grandmother was attempting to follow her, when a third load of shot struck her and she fell dead. As Stochal sprang out of bed, dazed with sleep, a fourth charge struck him in the head. Stochal crawled out of bed and seeing the murderer standing several rods from the house, slipped off in another direction, and barefooted, and clad only in his shirt and drawers, ran to the house of Cornelius Driscoll, half a mile west.

The murderer is undoubtedly August Tanto, a 19-year-old Pole. He had borrowed a Winchester repeating gun yesterday and was seen afterwards loading a number of cartridges with buckshot. He has been traced to the railroad depot where he took the east-bound train this morning.

Fred Stochal, the son, who has been in Lansing since Friday, has been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the crime.

Minnie Falz will probably die. Mr. Stochal's injuries are serious but not fatal.

A Pioneer Editor Dead.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Chester A. Washburn, of Morristown, N. J., died suddenly of apoplexy yesterday. He was one of the California pioneers in 1850, and for several years was editor of the Alta California. In 1866 he was appointed commissioner to Paraguay and later was made United States Minister to that country. In 1868 he returned to this country and has since devoted himself to literary pursuits. Mr. Washburn was one of seven brothers. The oldest brother, Israel Washburn, was once Governor of Maine. Elias B. Washburn was Minister to France during the Franco-Prussian war. Cadwallader Washburn was at one time Governor of Wisconsin, and his youngest brother, W. D. Washburn, is the present Senator-elect from Minnesota.

A Murderous "Peg-leg."

MARYSVILLE, Cal., January 27.—Yesterday morning, when near Gridley, Conductor Connors and a brakeman of the South-bound Oregon express train put a one-legged man off the train for non-payment of his fare. Connors took a pistol from the man before he was put off, but as the train was moving off threw it at him. The one-legged man secured the pistol and fired several shots at the moving cars without damage. The same man is now under arrest here, having attempted to use the pistol on a tramp.

A Race in Shells.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 27.—The boat race between Dennis Griffin, of the South End Boat Club, and Charles Long, of the Pioneer Boat Club, took place to-day in Oakland Creek. William O'Connor, the noted oarsman, was referee. Long used the same boat that O'Connor used in his race with Peterson. Long made the three miles in 22 minutes, 13 seconds, beating Griffin by twelve lengths.

The Late Fire in 'Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 27.—The smouldering ruins of last night's fire at the foot of Harrison street were viewed by several thousand persons to-day. Streams were kept playing on the ruins of Hooper, McCreary & Co's warehouse and the yard of Haslett & Bailey's bonded establishment until this morning. The estimate of $10,000 total loss is considered correct by the Fire Marshal.

Free-Thinkers' Covention.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 27.—The Convention of Liberals of California commenced this morning at Irving Hall, in this city, and will continue for three days, concluding with the Paine anniversary celebration on Tuesday evening. About 300 people were in attendance at the morning session, which was devoted mainly to temporary organization.

Chinese Burned Out.

DUTCH FLAT STATION, Cal., January 27.—Chinatown was destroyed by fire this morning. About forty wooden buildings were burned, among them the Chinese Theater. All fire-proof buildings, except the store of Wah Lung & Co., stood the heat. Most of the houses were owned by H. A. Frost. Loss about $20,000. No insurance.

Moody's Services.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 27.—To-day was the beginning of the last week of the season for which D. L. Moody was engaged to conduct revival services in this city, and it was also probably the last Sunday that he will appear here. Next Sunday he will probably begin another religious revival in Oakland.

A. N. S. G. W. Hall.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 27.—At the general meeting to-day of the Native Sons of the Golden West, it was decided to form a hall association and make an effort to build as fine structure for the use of the association if sufficient subscriptions can be received to the shares which are to be issued.

Wantonly Shooting Chinamen.

PORT TOWNSEND, January 27.—Two Chinese laborers were shot near town to-day by a young blood named Louie Corder, a boy 12 years old. The shooting, it is said, was purely cold-blooded. The Chinese are not expected to live.

THE SALT LAKE ROAD.

The Surveyors Still at Work at This End—The U. P. Directors.

The advertisement by the Salt Lake people for bids for the abutments for the Downey-avvenue and First-street bridges shows that the company does not intend to make any delays in the work ahead of them. A force of men was at work all last week filling in the approach at the east side of Downey-avenue bridge, where the Salt Lake road tracks will pass. Surveyors are also still out, running the preliminary lines between this city and the ocean. At the recent meeting of the Union Pacific directors it is stated that the Utah Southern extension question was presented before the directory in a very hopeful light, all indications pointing toward a reasonably near commencement of that enterprise. The Salt Lake Tribune says that the estimated cost of the entire line from Milford to Los Angeles is about $12,000,000, but this great outlay is reasonable enough, considering the great traffic resulting from it. An enormous amount of coal would be shipped into Southern California yearly, to say nothing of the vast quantities of pay ore to be reduced. A great trouble has been the lukewarmness of President Adams, of the Union Pacific. He has been through California and has seen only the climate and fruit, while the great mineral and coal deposits between Milford and the California line have escaped him entirely. There are hopes, however, of his conversion to the true state of things.

THE PANORAMA.

The Rumors That It Is To Be Moved Denied.

For some time past it has been rumored about town that the Panorama of the Siege of Paris was about to change hands, the latest statement being that it was to go to the City of Mexico in a few days. Among the reports was one that Jack Haverly, the famous minstrel man, who is passing the winter in this city, was trying to purchase it and would turn it into a concert hall, so a HERALD man called yesterday on Mr. Walter S. Maxwell, one of the proprietors of the building, and asked him what foundation there was for such stories.

"Well, there have been a number of overtures made to us," was the reply, "but there has been no outcome to any of them. One idea was to turn it into a Tivoli, but Mr. Haverly, who proposed it, figured out that the necessary changes would entail so much expenditure that there would be nothing in it. That has been the trouble with all of them, for to convert the building into anything besides what it is now will cost a good deal of money. As to sending the panorama to the City of Mexico, I can tell you that there is nothing at all in such a story; in fact, as matters stand now, I do not think that any changes at all are probable."

TEMPTED AS EVE WAS.

A New Way to Win Over Senators to Protection.

The Republican Tariff bill puts fruit on the free list, and, with the exception of the Floridians, the Democrats generally assent to this. But Senator Stanford opposes the idea, and he is carrying on a subtle campaign in favor of American fruits. Day after day sees in the Republican cloakroom of the Senate a sample or a number of samples of California fruits. The sample which was there yesterday differs entirely from that which is on exhibition to-day. On one occasion it may be a box of Fresno raisins, and the Senators walk in and help themselves to handfuls of the delicious fruit. At another time it will be a basket of Fresno figs, finer, often, than any figs the Senators ever saw before. Then it will be Riverside oranges, large and luscious, and the arrival of a box of the great pillow beauties is whispered around the chamber until every Senator who knows the quality of "Stanford's oranges" has buried his lips in the juicy pulp. Even the Florida Senators temporarily foreswear their allegiance to the great staple of their State and enjoy the California article. Prunes and grapes are frequently to be found in the cloakroom, and even the members of the sub-Committee on Finance eat thereof and are glad. When everybody has satisfied himself as to the quality of the fruit which happens to be on exhibition, then Senator Stanford remarks that the fruit-raising industries of the United States must be protected from competition on even terms with the fruits of foreign lands.—[Washington special.

A Good Showing.

The following list of building improvements in San Bernardino for 1888 was compiled by J. C. Scott, Secretary of the Board of Trade. It speaks well for the solid prosperity of the place:

Anderson & Harris block	$ 55,000
Bogart block	18,000
Otis block	24,000

The Empire Hat.

The special girl is just now under a shade. It is oftenest a shade of soft felt and great glossy plumes. It is perched sufficiently well on her head to show the knot at the back, and sufficiently off her forehead to make the aureole of curls do their duty. What is it? It is the enormously large Empire hat, burdened with nine plumes, and with its brim bent so it suits the face of the wearer; it may be fastened down like a poke bonnet; it may be flared up at one side and the long plumes allowed to touch the cheek on the other, or it may, in an arrogant manner, have its front uplifted, so that in her Corporal coat mademoiselle looks the picture of the great General himself. An Empire hat is by no means an economical adjunct to one's toilet, because it must be exactly the same color as the coat and is usually made to order, so that the brim, while it is wide enough, does not make the small woman look as if she were a blessed taper walking about with an extinguisher upon her. These are the only hats with which the Hading veils should be worn, for they are as much out of place on a round hat or a bonnet as would be a tulle gown at breakfast.—[New York Letter to Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE WEEK'S WORK.

The Various Measures that Will Engage Congress.

SAMOA IS TO BE DISCUSSED.

A Lively Debate Expected in the Event of the Oklahoma Bill Coming Up.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, January 27.—The Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill will come up in the Senate to-morrow, and the amendments proposed by the Foreign Relations Committee, providing means to defend and protect American interests in Samoa, will form the subject of a lively discussion. It may be, however, that these amendments will be considered in secret session.

On Tuesday, under an order of the Senate, made some days ago, the British extradition treaty will be discussed in executive session. Sherman will endeavor to press the Anti-Trust bill to a vote.

This week the Pacific Railroad Funding bill will also be the subject of several speeches.

Armed with the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, Randall will probably deprive the District of Columbia Committee of Monday, to which it is entitled under the rules. If he does not, several other members in charge of important measures stand ready to do it.

The Oklahoma adherents have signified their intention to call up their bill on Tuesday. A lively day may be expected if the bill comes up. Later in the week the appropriation bills are likely to play a prominent part, and when the Naval bill is taken up, an entertaining discussion on the Samoan matter will probably ensue.

Interstate Commerce Rulings.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has promulgated an opinion on the subject of the passenger tariffs and rate wars, prepared by Chairman Cooley. The paper narrates the facts attending the war in passenger rates at St. Louis in October, and also the circumstances of the passenger rate war which prevailed at Chicago in December, both of which were investigated by the Commission. It is recommended that the Interstate Commerce Act be so amended as, first, to define what shall be considered excursion and commutation tickets; second, to prohibit all payment of commissions on the sale of tickets, and all sale of tickets for interstate business except by the regular agents of the carriers; third, to require the carriers to provide for the speedy and convenient redemption of all unused tickets or coupons. The previous recommendations, in respect to amendments relating to joint tariffs and notices of reduction of rates, are renewed.

RAILROAD PERSONALS.

Movements of the Profession in This City.

Mr. F. J. Wolfe, general baggage agent of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, is in the city, being one of the delegates who having recently convened in San Francisco are now making a tour of the coast. Mr. Wolfe, who is in the hands of that Napoleon of hosts, Mr. Amos Burr, during his stay in the city, expresses himself as highly delighted with his experiences here. "It is my first visit to Los Angeles," he said to a HERALD man yesterday, "and I have found it all that I expected and more too. You have a world of your own out here, or rather you have the paradise for the rest of the world." Mr. Wolfe will leave for the East to-day, as his duties call him back to headquarters as soon as possible.

Mr. Dan True, the Pennsylvania's representative in this territory, returned yesterday morning from San Francisco. Regarding the announcement that his company intends to open an office here at an early date, he says that the officials of the road are figuring on such a proposition and that something will probably be done in the matter after everything is running smoothly under the new management at San Francisco.

Mr. N. A. Phillips, General Baggage Agent of the Chicago and Northwestern road, left the city yesterday for home. Mr. Phillips has been very much indisposed since his arrival in California, but leaves with a firm conviction that for climate and resources it cannot be beaten.

Mr. J. F. Fugazi, Pacific Coast Agent for the Compagnie General Transatlantique, and also agent for the Union Pacific, Rock Island, and Pacific Steamship Company, arrived in town yesterday, accompanied by his wife. They will remain here a few days, and then go on to New York.

Mr. W. O. Mohler, ex-Chief Conductor of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, returned yesterday from an organizing trip to Winslow and Albuquerque. He leaves on Wednesday for New York.

District Superintendent W. B. Ellwood, of the Pullman Car Company, returned yesterday morning from Albuquerque. He will leave to-day for Prescott to make arrangements for the return journey of the Arizona legislators.

Mr. F. W. Thompson, of the Rock Island road, returned to town yesterday morning. His arrival was unexpected, as it was announced that he would not be back before Wednesday.

Mr. C. Seekatz, the special officer at the Southern Pacific depot, was yesterday stricken down with an attack of rheumatic fever.

THE ASTRONOMERS.

A Reception to be Given to Them To-Day at Pasadena.

To-day the Board of Trade at Pasadena will give a formal reception to Alvan G. Clark and Prof. Pickering. Invitations have been issued to a number of prominent citizens here, the cards bearing the signatures of Messrs. Delos Arnold, William F. Cheney, E. L. Coeger, C. F. Holder and J. Barting. The ceremonies will consist of a lunch at the Raymond at noon and a grand banquet in the evening at the Carlton.

In conversation with a HERALD man, Mr. Clark said that no definite arrangement had yet been made regarding the mammoth telescope, but that something will be decided on on Tuesday. The difficulty appears to be of a financial order, but Mr. Clark says that he will take the contract if it is offered to him by the trustees acting for the Southern California University. They are willing to make terms with him in their capacity as trustees for the telescope funds, but as there has not been enough money subscribed yet Mr. Clark cannot undertake the work on such an arrangement.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The Programme for the April Meeting as Announced.

The Los Angeles Turf Association has issued the official programme of events to be decided at its Spring meeting, and, in accordance with the suggestions thrown out by the sporting editor, has omitted three of the trotting purses which originally appeared on the card, and has replaced them with three extra running races. Every one will allow that this is wise policy, and the strength added to the programme thereby ought to make the Spring meeting the best ever held at the Agricultural Park.

So famous is Mr. H. T. Rodman, the genial secretary to the association, not merely for his administrative ability, but for his courtesy to all comers, that the new departure of the association taken at his suggestion will not meet with surprise. The fair sex especially—and Mr. Rodman is nothing if not a champion of the ladies—will be under deep obligations to him for the manner in which he has cared for their interest by inducing the association to provide free passes for the meeting, either daily or weekly, to any lady who makes application therefor to any member of the association or its secretary. That the whole staff of the Turf Exchange will be kept busy writing passes from now to the 8th of April next goes without saying, but their trouble will be amply repaid by the galaxy of beauty and fashion which will grace the grand stand during the next race week.

The programme published by the association is given at length literatim:

FIRST DAY—MONDAY, APRIL 8TH.

First race—"The Rodman Scramble" for two-year-old foals of 1887; $50 entrance, half forfeit or only $10 if declared out January 1, 1888, or $15 if declared out January 1, 1889; $200 added; distance five-eighths of a mile; closed March 15, 1889, with eight entries.

Second race — Southern Pacific handicap (running) for all ages; $20 each, half forfeit; entries to close February 21st; weight to be announced March 2d; $200 added, of which $50 to second; distance one and a quarter miles.

Third race—Trotting; 2:20 class; purse $600.

SECOND DAY—TUESDAY, APRIL 9TH.

First race—Running; purse $150, all ages; of which $25 to the second horse; 10 pounds above scale entries free, but all horses so entering compelled to start unless excused by the judges; distance seven-eighths of a mile.

Second race—Running; "The Pioneer Stakes Handicap" for all ages; entrance $20, half forfeit, with $150 added, the second horse to receive $50; distance one and one-sixteenth miles (heats).

Third race—Trotting; 3-minute class; purse $200

THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10TH.

First race—Running; "Inaugural Sweepstakes" for 3-year-olds and upwards, of $20 each, half forfeit, with $150 added, the second horse to receive $50; horses not having won in 1888, when carrying weight for age or more, allowed 7 pounds; non-winners in 1888 allowed 14 pounds; maiden 4-year-olds and upwards allowed 20 pounds; distance, 1 mile.

Second race—Running; purse $300; 10 per cent. entrance; ½ mile heats.

Third race—Trotting; for 2-year-olds; same conditions as the Rodman Scramble; $200 added; mile heats; 2 in 3; closed.

FOURTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 11TH.

First race—Running; "Lullaby Stakes" for 2-year-olds; purse $200, of which $50 to the second; 10 per cent. entrance; the winner of the Rodman Scramble to carry 5 pounds extra; distance ⅝ of a mile.

Second race—Running; all ages; purse $300; distance 1 mile.

Third race—Trotting; 2:35 class; purse $350.

FIFTH DAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 12TH.

First race—"Southern California Cup;" $25 each, play or pay, $250 added; $50 to the second horse; all ages; distance 2¼ miles.

Second race—Trotting; for 3-year-olds; same conditions as the 2-year-old trotting race, with $300 added; 3 in 5; closed.

Third race—Pacing; free for all; purse $500; 10 per cent. entrance.

SIXTH DAY, SATURDAY, APRIL 10TH.

First race—Running; purse $300; all ages; $50 to the second horse; 10 per cent. entrance; ¾ of a mile (heats).

Second race — Running; "Los Angeles Derby;" for 3-year-old foals of 1886; same terms as the Rodman Scramble; $300 added; closed March 15th with 12 entries; distance 1¼ miles.

Third race—Running; purse $200; consolation race for horses that have never made better than third; distance, 1 mile, 40 yards.

Fourth race—"Trotting Double Team" free for all; to horses that have never beaten 2:30; purse $400; 10 per cent. entrance; 5 to enter, 3 to start.

On Thursday next the gentlemen's driving race will take place at the Agricultural Park, and on the same day the mile match race between Mr. H. L. Samuel's br. m. Welcome and Mr. P. C. Dornalech's s. g. Narcho B., will also be decided. Both events should furnish exciting contests, and as the admission to the track will be free to all, entrance to the grand stand only being charged for, and all the proceeds of the day, after paying expenses, are to be devoted to the Orphans' Home, a large attendance is to be expected.

THE PRIZE RING.

There has been a good deal of dissatisfaction expressed at the result of the late glove contest between Nixon and Ward, some even going so far as to suggest that the fight was not on the square. This is doing a great injustice, not merely to the proprietor of the Club Theater, where it took place, who will allow no fake exhibitions, but to a good man like Ward, who deserves every praise for his hard-earned victory. The fact that neither man showed any very great scientific ability was chiefly due to the fact that both men were so much in earnest that it took the referee all his time to keep them within bounds, and that the spectators were satisfied was proved by their enthusiasm.

At the present time every light-weight pugilist from New York to San Francisco is, or pretends to be, thirsting for the gore of Tommy Warren, who by his late victory over Jack Havlin, at the California Athletic Club, acquired the feather-weight championship of the world. But, singular to relate, none of these fighters who are so willing to fight in the featherweight class have as yet deposited a forfeit as an earnest of their intention to make a bona-fide match. Warren wishes it to be distinctly understood that he will take no notice of any challenge which may be made unless accompanied by a forfeit to the sporting editor of the Los Angeles HERALD, or some other prominent sporting paper. He makes this announcement in order to avoid the annoyances which arise from so many men issuing challenges which they are unable or unwilling to substantiate, but at the same time any challenge accompanied by a suitable forfeit will receive his immediate attention. ANGLICE.

THE FINAL SETTLEMENT.

The Grievances on the Santa Fe Disposed of.

The recent trouble between the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company and its yard men at San Bernardino was very amicably and satisfactorily settled on Saturday night through a conference of the company's officers with committees representing the Brotherhood of Railway Brakemen, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and the Switchmen's Association. The company's officials speak in the highest terms of the intelligence and fairness displayed by the several committees, and are much pleased with the serene feeling lately established between their employees generally through the organization of the new Brotherhood of Railway Conductors.

HOW MANY WAYS CAN THIS BE READ?

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD IS BY ALL ACKNOWLEDGED have been the prime factor in the discovery and making known of the resources of this section. To its sagacious outgivings more than to any other agency our marvelous development is attributed.

THE HERALD has from its inception watched with a single eye the budding industries of this portion of the State. For each good enterprise this journal has at all times had a word of cheerful encouragement. In spite of the skeptical, it has survived to see all of its earlier predictions fullfilled to the letter.

THE HERALD to-day takes the lead in all respects among the papers of Southern California. Its first care still is the material, intellectual and social interests of its section. It aims to be truthful rather than over-zealous in its publication of news; to be conservative rather than over-sensational, in its policy; to be clean and decent, respecting the sacred precincts of the home and fireside, rather than indecently salacious in its tone.

THE HERALD gets all the news from all quarters of the globe with promptness accuracy and dispatch. Its local staff is energetic and well-trained to miss nothing of real importance to its readers. It is always alive to all public enterprises.

THE HERALD still takes pride in aiding any legitimate material, intellectual or social movement which will benefit the people. No other journal in this section approaches it in those important respects.

For a Clean Family Paper Take the Herald!

FOR THE MATERIAL INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY TAKE THE HERALD!

For Full Local News of All Sorts Take the HERALD

For Careful and Able Editorials on All the Happenings of the Day Take the Herald!

The Los Angeles Herald,

THE CLEANEST, ABLEST, MOST COMPLETE AND SATISFACTORY JOURNAL IN

SOUTH CALIFORNIA

NEWS NOTES.

John Smith, an old vag, was run in by detective Marsh yesterday afternoon.

The paving of Third street progresses very slowly, only one block having been finished in several weeks.

Philip Garcia was brought up from Santa Monica and put in the County Jail yesterday. He is charged with petit larceny.

Ed Carr got very drunk yesterday noon and made a disturbance on Main street. He was brought in by Officer O'Brien.

The tower of the new City Hall is still going skywards. It is probable that it will be five feet shorter than at first intended.

The new Court House is progressing very slowly, but the supervisors say that it will be ready for occupancy before the year 1895.

The Democratic City Central Committee will meet at the Iroquois Club rooms at 1 o'clock this afternoon. All of the members are requested to be present.

F. N. Armor and Thomas Tone got in a row on First street yesterday noon, and they were both arrested by officer Boland, the former for disturbing the peace, and the latter for battery.

Imre Kiralfy's Black Crook Company will arrive this morning, direct from San Francisco. The company comprises eighty people and brings three baggage-cars of scenery. It does not play in Fresno, and in consequence the curtain will rise on time to-night.

The paving of Fort street is progressing rapidly but the residents along Second street think it strange that the pavement is not carried across. Some of those residing in the blocks which have to pay for this intersection say that they will not pay for the paving until this is completed. They also think that the space between the cable tracks should be paved.

The City Council will meet this morning at 10 o'clock. Several important matters are to come up for consideration, among which are the contract for lighting the city and the fixing of the date for the election under the new Charter. The Aurora-street bridge matter will probably be brought up, as well as the outfall sewer route.

At the annual meeting of the Los Angeles Mutual Protective Association, the following officers were elected: H. E. Hamilton, President; W. C. Stone, Vice-President; Max Lenzberg, Treasurer; R. E. Lander, Secretary; W. H. Brown, A. W. Willhartitz, F. U. Elser, Ferd. Miene, Dave Douglas, Trustees. The association is reported as being in a very flourishing condition.

A FASHIONABLE PARTY.

Arrival of Mr. Montgomery Sears, of Boston.

In the handsomely-appointed private car, "Tolanthe," just built by the Raymonds, Mr. J. Montgomery Sears and family passed the city yesterday en route for Pasadena. In addition to Mr. Sears and family, the party consists of Mrs. Dr. de Gersdoff, of Cambridge, (who is a sister of Hon. Joseph H. Choate, of New York,) her son, and Miss Suzette Crowninshield. Mr. Sears has with him three servants, besides those the company furnishes, and will probably create quite a sensation in social circles here. Just before leaving Boston Mr. Sears entertained that famous old organization, the Thursday Evening Club, and after the English fashion, his men-servants in full livery were drawn up in a line on each side of the superbly-appointed dining-room when the guests were summoned for supper. Mr. Sears is the only man in Boston who has adopted this fashion and carried it out successfully. He will remain on the Coast for the next four months and his absence is much lamented in the Eastern fashionable world for his hospitalities have been frequent and most sumptuous and in him the musicians of Boston lose their best patron and friend. Mr. Sears is many times a millionaire, having succeeded, on coming of age, fifteen years ago, to the vast fortune which had been left him by his father and which having been held in trust for many years, had greatly increased in value. His father was engaged in the sugar business and was a self-made man, it being said that he started in to make his fortune because a girl in his younger days refused his hand because he had not got a cent.

The "Tolanthe" is one of the finest traveling cars on the road and is a marvel of luxury, comfort and beauty. At the end is an observation room provided with easy chairs and sofas, from which a view can be had of the country round about. It will be side-tracked at the Raymond during Mr. Sears' stay at the "Crown of the Foothills."

NEW OFFICERS.

Election Held Yesterday by the B. of R. C.

At a regular meeting of the grand division of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, held in this city yesterday, Mr. W. O. Mohler resigned the position of Grand Chief Conductor. Mr. G. W. Howard, the General Superintendent of the Coronado Railroad, San Diego and Coronado Ferry Company and the San Diego Street-car Company, was elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Howard is well known in railroad circles throughout the country and he has had a very large experience in the handling of railway men. His high sense of justice will render him a valuable acquisition to the Order, and he will be generally satisfactory to railway officials, among whom he has a vast number of warm friends. Mr. D. J. Carr was also elected Grand Secretary and Treasurer. The address of both is postoffice box 935, this city.

The Brotherhood which first saw light in this city on the 15th of November last with a membership of eleven, has made wonderful strides and now has a roll of 600, and twelve branches in addition to the headquarters here. To-morrow Mr. Chas. T. Moore will leave for Arizona and will organize lodges at Winslow, The Needles, Raton and Pueblo, and on the following day Mr. Mohler will leave for New York for the purpose of establishing branches at Rochester, Buffalo, Utica and Syracuse. The members of the new organization feel quite proud of the solid position they have attained, and having now entrenched themselves well financially, intend to storm the strongholds of the O. R. C. in the East.

A Good School.

The HERALD contains, under the head "Educational," in the advertising columns, an announcement of St. Matthew's Hall, San Mateo. If for any reason a boy has to be sent away from this section to school, no better institution can be found in the State than in St. Matthew's Hall. It has been in existence for a quarter of a century under the same influences. All the care of a home is exercised by those in charge, and the system of instruction is second to none.

The Lumber Market.

The President of the San Pedro Lumber Company stated yesterday to a HERALD man that there is a fair stock of lumber on hand, but the market is by no means overcrowded. The mills are still running up north, not having been closed down as early as was anticipated. Local prices are not steady among the dealers here owing to the breaking-up of the trust, but the mill men are still standing steadily together.

Democratic City Central Committee.

The Democratic City Central Committee will meet to-day at 1 o'clock in the Iroquois Club rooms. Matters of prime importance to the party will be discussed, and every member of the committee should be on hand to give his voice in the counsels of the party.

HE TOOK THE WRONG MEDICINE.

Robert Stewart of Petaluma recently had a queer experience. He writes:

"Carbuncles and boils afflicted my face and neck for weeks. Finally I procured a bottle of one of the leading sarsaparillas. To my surprise it made matters worse. This made me lose faith in sarsaparillas, but seeing a statement that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla dried up boils and face eruptions instead of forcing more out as the potash sarsaparillas do, I bought a bottle. The effect was astonishing. The carbuncles and boils began to dry up, and in two weeks my face was as well and smooth as ever. My brother also took a bottle with the same benefit. ROBERT STEWART,
"Petaluma, Cal."

[Explanatory Note—The mineral iodide of potash, which is the basis of nearly all other sarsaparillas, attacks the blood direct, hence forces impurities through the skin, creating more boils and pimples. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla acts oppositely. Its vegetable alteratives stimulate the various secretive organs and thus eliminate all impurities through the natural channels, hence dries up pimples and skin eruptions at once. The above testimonial is a case in point.]

Nearly 100,000 Cases Treated.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment, which have such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., November 14, 1888.
This is to certify that I had been afflicted with asthma and emphysima of the lungs for about 24 years. My disease was contracted in the army. I had tried almost every known remedy, both here and in the East, but nothing ever gave me permanent relief until I had tried Dr. Williams' Compound Oxygen and other remedies. It is only about one month since I began the treatment and already I feel like another man. I was so bad that for days I could scarcely breathe, but I do positively feel that I am entirely cured. The difficulty of breathing has been entirely removed, and I feel as well as I ever did in every respect

LOS ANGELES, November 16, 1888.
It is a source of gratification to me to be able to testify to the very satisfactory cure Dr. M. Hilton Williams has effected in my case with his Compound Oxygen and other inhalations. After suffering for several years with catarrh of the head and throat, also bronchitis, which caused a very aggravating cough, I applied to Dr. Williams, who effected an entire cure in just two months from the time I began the treatment. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams as a Christian gentleman and a conscientious and skillful physician, whose cures seem almost marvelous in cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrh.
MRS. L. A. THURSTON,
53 South Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.

I have seen so many cases of lung diseases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success
The very best references from those already cured.

Oxygen is widely known for its life-giving and vitalizing power; and inhalations of this potent agent in its various forms, oxygen-gas, nitrogen-monoxide, peroxide of hydrogen, ozone, etc., combined with medicated inhalations and specific internal remedies, constitute a treatment that is unrivaled in its effects.

A Leading New York Physician,

In speaking of the use of the mixed gasses, says a few weeks' treatment will usually be followed by "increased activity of the digestive, assimilative and excretory functions; hence follows relief of chronic constipation and return of normal appetite; dyspnœa from any cause may be relieved, severe asthma not excepted, the treatment proving almost a specific; softening and resorption of morbid deposits of every character, whether lymphous tuberculous or cancerous; habitual headaches and neuralgias of almost every form, even chronic sciatica cured or materially alleviated; marked increase in the breathing capacity; progressive 'toning-up' of the muscular and nervous systems; restoration of voice in some cases of nervous aphonia and lost vocal power; removal of inveterate insomnia; invigoration of impaired or declining VITAL POWER, and, in a word, increased mental and physical vigor. Nor are these results merely temporary, as from stimulation. They are essentially permanent and substantial."
